

Prompt 196 (3 AM Epiphany): Caught on Tape

original transcription:

Hello. So basically, this girl goes out with all of her friends and her friends brings one of their friends.

Probably like a friend from home or something. I don't know.

And they all go out.

And so, the girl gets really drunk, right? and when the girl gets drunk she notices that her friends friend is peeping her, like ooooo, um, want some of that.

and she can't really tell because, (sigh), The friend's friend is being very like subtle about it and not making any, uh, super noticeable moves, but, they're just enough for the girls to notice like, (pause). He asks her "oh, do you want a sip of my drink?" or he might say hey to everybody in the room, but he gives her a hug, its just real subtle, and she can't tell whether or not he's trying to get with her or, like, trying to make a move on her or he's just overly nice.

So they keep drinking.

And, (sigh) they go home.

When they go home, the guy talks to the girl right?

While everybody else is in the room, in a different room, or just doing whatever and they end up talking. And so, the guy makes his move. He just kisses her. He's like and it goes like "woah, that happened".

Then they end up fucking.

That's what happens.

And so, the girl is like wow.

Can't believe that happened.

And.

2 weeks later.

Girl finds out she has chlamydia (loud laugh).

exercise:

R: 1st call: "Hey Sam. This is Rachel from, um, the other night. So, uh... we need to talk whenever you get the chance to. Its urgent."

R: 2nd call (15 minutes later): "Hey, so, I know I just called, but I need you to understand the urgency of this call. So please call me back. Thanks."

R: 3rd call (30 seconds later); I'm not pregnant, by the way. So, thats that on that. Just call me back."

The call back (approximately 25 minutes later):

R: "um, hello?"

S: "Hey, Rachel, I got your voicemail. What's wrong?"

R: "uh, where are you?"

S: "I'm at work right now."

R: "Maybe you should call me back later when you have time to sit down."

S: "No, its fine. I have time."

R: "okay, um, well, so, ummm....yougavemechlamydia."

S: "Wait, say that last part one more time?"

R: "You.....gave me chlamydia."

S: "I DID?"

R: "yes."

S: "Could it have been-"

R: "No, you're the only person I've had sex with this year."

S: "Was the test accurate?"

R: "Well, it came from a doctor sooooo..?"

S: "Yeah, it can't be a lie then. How did you figure out?"

R: "I....I went to the doctor?"

S: "I didn't think about that."

S: "Are you dying?"

R: "No?"

S: "Okay, good."

R: "Yeah, well, you should probably get tested. And tell all the other people you fucked to get tested."

S: "Yeah, definitely. I am so, so sorry. I didn't know."

R: "Well, at least its like gonorrhoea. Chlamydia is like the common cold of stds."

S: "....."

R: "yeah, but I'm fine. Just call me when you get off."

S: "Okay, I will. I'm so sorry again."

R: "Have a good day at work."

S: "Thanks, bye."
